

Congratulations to the Members of the Class of 2011

And Best Wishes

In the Next Chapter of Your Life.

Special Thanks to the Family, Friends,

Teachers, Staff and Mentors

Who Nurtured and Encouraged

Our Students

Over the Past Four Years.

metro
graduation celebration 2011

Graduates are from the Following School Districts:

Bexley, Canal Winchester, Columbus, Dublin, Gahanna, Groveport, Grandview, Hilliard, New Albany, Reynoldsburg, South-Western,
Upper Arlington, Westerville, Whitehall, Worthington

Metro Early College High School Graduation Celebration

June 11, 2011

Processional

Welcome

Mrs. Marcy Raymond, Principal

Graduate Remarks – Zunera Syed

Introduction of Guest Speaker – Bryn Webster

Dr. Jim Mahoney, Executive Director
Battelle for Kids

Graduate Remarks – Andrew Bogart

Introduction of Guest Speaker – Allison Barnes

Dr. E. Gordon Gee, President
The Ohio State University

Graduate Remarks - Ciera Fluker

Presentation of Graduates

Ms. Aimee Kennedy, Assistant Principal

Recessional

Luke Pfeiffer

Brookhaven High School

Luke plans to major in Film Studies at The Ohio State University.

Molly Ricksecker

Whetstone High School

Molly plans to be a Special Education major at The Ohio State University. She received a Trustee Scholarship and an OSU I Know I Can Scholarship.

Kelsie Polak

Centennial High School

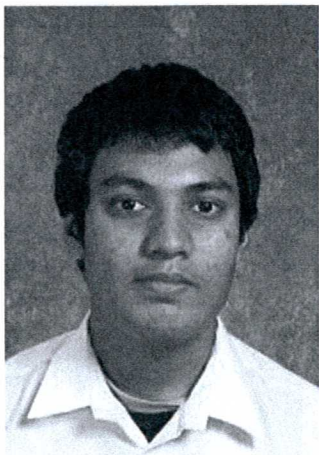

Kelsie will attend Columbus State Community College.

Nathan Rideout-Cadieux

Centennial High School

Nathan will attend The Ohio State University, where he plans to major in Business.

Alburuj Rahman

Whetstone High School

Alburuj plans to study Biomedical Science at Cornell University. He received a Cornell University Grant.

Elizabeth Roche

Westerville North High School

Elizabeth plans to major in Agricultural and Biological Engineering at The Ohio State University. She was awarded a World Food Prize Scholarship.