Indian-American community members visit APJ Abdul Kalam STEM ER Center

Aligarh, January 30: A team of eminent Indian-American community members visited the APJ Abdul Kalam STEM ER Center, Aligarh Muslim University (AMU), where they were acquainted with the Center's developments.

Dr Nikhil Tambe (Director, India Gateway, Global Gateways, Office of the International Affairs, Ohio State University), Mr Nirmal K Sinha (President and Trustee of the Federation of Asian Indian Associations and President of the Asian Indian American Business Group) and Mr Sayantan Chakravarty (Editor, Indian Empire) were briefed about the STEM ER Center's work by the Chief-Guest, Prof M Shakir (Dean, Faculty of Science) and Guest of Honour, Prof Rizwan H Khan (Interdisciplinary Biotechnology Unit).

Prof Tauheed Ahmad (Director, APJ Abdul Kalam STEM ER Center) delivered the welcome address, while Prof Farukh Arjmand spoke on the Center's undergraduate research projects.

Dr Sabiha Parveen and Ms Swaleha Naseem informed the delegation about the AMU-Ohio State University (OSU) STEM ER collaboration and visit of STEM fellows to OSU. Dr Nikhil Tambe also spoke on the occasion.

Dr Asim Rizvi conducted the programme.

AMU Vice Chancellor, Prof Tariq Mansoor hosted the delegation for lunch after their University tour.
