

To Whom It May Concern

The Astronomy and meteorology department greatly appreciate Professor Sultana.N.Nahar for her visit to Al-Azhar University, Physics and Astronomy departments on Monday 25th February 2013. Her excellent lecture on Astrobiology is very interesting and very useful for all staff members.

The Astronomy and meteorology Department would like to thanks Professor Sultana for her kind gift of astrophysics books. Her prizes for lecturer and students have great effects on our community department. It is our pleasure if she can repeat her visit to our University in the near future. We pray for God to bless her.
