Dear Alburuj:

Congratulations! On behalf of President Gordon Gee and the entire university community, I am pleased to offer you admission to The Ohio State University, Columbus campus, for Autumn 2011.

Your admission to Ohio State reflects our confidence in your ability to succeed at one of the nation's top public universities. As a new Buckeye, you will soon join a community of dynamic students, accomplished faculty, and inspired staff at a university where the energy, momentum, and pride have never been higher. We look forward to welcoming you and anticipate that you and your peers—among the most talented students ever to enroll at Ohio State—will contribute in unique ways to 140 years of achievement, spirit, and tradition at Ohio State.

In the next several days, you will receive information detailing forthcoming steps in the enrollment process. In the weeks and months that follow, we will be in touch with more information about the academic and co-curricular opportunities that make Ohio State a great choice. We encourage you and your family to let us know how we can be of assistance to you during this exciting time.

On behalf of the entire Ohio State Family, welcome!

Sincerely,

Mabel G. Freeman, Ph.D.

Dear Alburuj:

Your strong high school record identifies you as an ideal candidate for the Ohio State Scholars Program; I encourage you to apply. The Scholars Program provides the opportunity to begin your undergraduate life among a wonderful community of academically talented students. As the enclosed brochure describes, the Ohio State Scholars Program:

- Matches you with students who share similar interests
- Provides opportunities for personal growth and tailored advising
- Offers specially designated residence halls and thematic co-curricular programs such as seminars, workshops, and volunteer experiences
- Schedules "Scholars-only" clustered courses and short-term study abroad programs

To learn more about Ohio State's 14 Scholars programs, please visit honors-scholars.osu.edu.

The Scholars Program is highly selective and students must apply to be considered for admission. Visit hsapp.osu.edu to complete the Scholars Program application no later than February 1, 2011. To log in, you will need your OSU ID and password. Both were included in the "notice of receipt" you received from the university after submitting your admissions application. If you cannot locate your password, go to the secure web site for information about retrieving it.

You are just the kind of student we want at The Ohio State University. We look forward to receiving your Ohio State Scholars Program application.

Best regards,
