International Women's Day 2021

Share

On International Women's Day 2021, the India Gateway celebrated the visibility and achievements of Ohio State women faculty and alumnae via social media posts. Celebrated for more than 100 years, International Women's Day is a global celebration honoring the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women.

The India Gateway featured Ohio State faculty who are at the forefront of their fields and are engaged with partners in India including, cancer researcher Purnima Dubey and pathologist Anjali Satoskar in the College of Medicine, organizational psychologist Tanya Menon in the Fisher College of Business, Sharvari Karandikar in the College of Social Work and atomic physicist Sultana Nahar in the College of Arts and Sciences.

The Gateways also honored alumnae who are leaders in their fields and discovering solutions to challenges in India such as professor Mamata Mukhopadhyay at IIT Bombay, engineering manager at Google Jayanthi Sampathkumar, managing director at Indoco Remedies Ltd. Aditi Kare Panandikar, and architect Neetika Wahi with HKS, Inc.
