Dear Dr. Nahar:

Thank you for your letter and for sharing a handful of pictures from the ceremony you attended at Wayne State University. I am glad you enjoyed yourself at the celebration, and that you had the opportunity to connect with Roy. He is a great leader and an even better friend.

Congratulations on receiving a Distinguished Alumni Award from your alma mater! You should be very proud. This is a wonderful honor, and one that is much deserved given your long list of accomplishments. We, like Wayne State, are proud to claim you as one of our own.

Thank you, also, for the well wishes. I hope our paths will cross one day on campus.

Sincerely,

Michael V. Drake, MD
