Sultana N.Nahar and Alburuj R. Rahman Award for STEM

Zakaria won The Best Graduate Award organized by Sultana N.Nahar and Alburuj R. Rahman Award for STEM.

In recognition of the best teaching in class and outstanding research publications by the Muslim faculty members and achievement of academic excellence and research by Muslim students, annual Sultana N. Nahar faculty and Alburuj R. Rahman student prizes have been introduced at the Islamic University of Gaza (IUG) to start in 2016.

The prize aims at motivating Muslims teachers for the best teaching in class and outstanding research publications and encouraging Muslim students to academic and research excellence in STEM [science, technology, engineering, and mathematics].
